

This anthology is part of the Department for Communities and Local Government (DCLG) and the Big Ideas Company Living Memory Project to encourage the British public to remember the labour force of WWI. There are 300,000 war graves and memorials in Britain from both world wars and so many more unremarked-upon graves holding those who have not traditionally been remembered for their war effort. It is hoped that this project will help to redress the balance.

Black Pear Press

ISBN 978-1-910322-65-9

9 781910 322659 >

The Unremembered of WWI

—A Living Memory Project—